Captain, thanks for sending Officer Eubanks. We agreed to meet again on Monday June 1 at 10:30 a.m. at the store again. (Darrell, can you ensure the new SLO can be at that meeting?) A number of strategies were discussed including:

- * Posting visible no loitering signs outside so LAPD can actively patrol
- * Changing the hours of their security guard (currently 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sunday - Thursday, and 11 p.m. to 5 a.m. Sat/Sun) to create some unpredictability. The guard will start coming in at 6 a.m. for a while to "break the pattern." (BID Patrol received 72 calls in the first quarter from JIB, and about 80 percent of them were between the hours of 6 a.m. to 10 a.m.)
- * Ensure security guard is proactive and enforces the "30 minute rule" in the store, and also enforces store's right to refuse service
- * Encouraging store manager to call 911 when threatened - to document that LAPD will respond to incidents; word-of-mouth helps to break the pattern
- * Documenting potential candidates for stay away orders

We did not discuss the elimination of the self serve soda-may bring that up next time. I know corporate is loath to remove that - we tried that tactic five years ago when we were in this situation.

Thanks so much - let's see if this helps to lessen the load, and make this area a bit safer for everyone.

Kerry

Kerry

I have Ccd Sgt Davis. If I haven't heard from him by 10, I will send a patrol sergeant.

Here are some thoughts about keeping transients out.

No refill soda. Limit time in store. Lock bathroom and use only tokens provided by store. Cameras all around store. Security guard on duty are some ideas. Close interior doors and only allow drive through after 10 pm.
